

Where in the Summit is converseon?

The Clues

“Where in the Summit is Converseon?” Game

Remember:

1) In order to be “recognized” by the Converseon team (and in order to take their picture!), you must be wearing your “I’m going to win the Where in the Summit is Converseon? game” button. Get your button from any Converseon team member at any time throughout the Summit and wear it proudly.

2) For your photo to be eligible for points, you must be in the photo, and the Converseon team member (or entire team) must also be in the picture. We promise not to judge on photo-taking ability – just that you’ve got all the necessary stuff in the shot!

3) Unless otherwise noted, clues are “one-time-only” opportunities – you can get the points for each clue once (with any Converseon team member), plus any bonus points as indicated.

1. The game starts once the Converseon team leaves our offices. Get 10 points if you are able to get your photo with any of the Converseon Team at the Las Vegas airport. 10 extra bonus points if you can get a picture in one of the airports we have a layover in. On this clue, get points for every Converseon team member you see in airports. (hint: we’re mostly traveling on Saturday 2/23 and Wednesday 2/27, though some of us will travel on Sunday and Tuesday). (No button necessary for this picture – but be sure to grab your Where in the Summit is Converseon? button from the first Converseon team member you see!)
2. How can you go to Las Vegas without seeing “The King”? 10 points if you get a picture with any Converseon team member with The King, and another 20 points if you are able to get the entire Converseon team and you posing with his eminence. And 25 points more if you’re wearing Blue Suede Shoes in the picture.
3. 5 points are up for grabs for each picture you take with Converseon and one of the following luminaries in the affiliate industry: Shawn Collins, Missy Ward, Connie Berg, Jim Kukral, Sam Harrelson, Lisa Picarille or Wayne Porter... So 35 potential points here....!
4. You got to know when to hold ‘em, know when to fold ‘em, know when to walk away and know when to run. 5 points for any shot you get with a Converseon team member playing Blackjack (or any table game).
5. When you wish upon a star... Are you going to the Share-A-Sale “Under the Stars” party? 5 points for a picture of you and any Converseon team member.
6. Going once, going twice – SOLD! 10 points for a picture with any Converseon team member at this Summit event on Monday at 3 pm.
7. No rest for the wicked... well we aren’t wicked, but there seems to be no rest in this town. Even though we are in Vegas, we still have to keep up with all our weekly work. 5 points for any photo of a Converseon team member putting in some time catching up on email.
8. Place your bets, place your bets! Get a whopping 20 points for your picture with any Converseon team member looking at a new Converseon merchant placement on your site. 10 points for each additional placement. (Only good one time per placement and you with any Converseon team member.)
9. Catch Jamie Birch getting his caffeine fix in the morning, take a photo of the two of you, and find yourself with 5 more points.
10. It’s time to get virtual – find any Converseon team member at this well-known conference’s booth on the Summit show floor and get 10 points.
11. It’s not a meat market, it’s a meet market. At this Affiliate Summit event, get 5 points for each picture of you and a Converseon team member.
12. Who is the keymaster? Any picture of you and a Converseon team member listening attentively to the event’s keynote will win you 5 points.
13. And the award goes to... 15 points for the entire Converseon team and you at this Summit gala event.
14. Gentlemen start your engines, and ladies too. 5 points for any picture of you and any Converseon team member at this Summit “rally.”
15. 5 points are available for any picture of you with a Converseon team member discussing one of our clients: Relax The Back, Cricket Wireless, Palm, Hilton Hotels, Science Education Affiliate Network, Factory Card, Taylor Gifts and Get Organized and TheLadders.
16. I’ll take mine shaken not stirred. 5 points for your picture with any Converseon team member at this Summit evening networking event on Sunday.
17. 9 out of 10 experts agree... 5 points for a picture of you and any Converseon team member at this Q&A session on Tuesday.
18. What happens in Vegas stays in Vegas... well except for all these pictures, of course. Catch any Converseon team member in front of this Vegas-famous amazing water feature and get 10 points. Get an extra 20 points if the entire Converseon team is in your picture.
19. We thought our home city, New York was the city that never sleeps. But Vegas definitely beats New York, especially when we’re here for Summit. Catch anyone from Converseon burning the midnight oil, or the 1am oil or the 3am oil, and get 10 points. You, the Converseon team member, plus a watch or clock must be in this photo. (For this clue, you can submit up to 5 photos, one of each Converseon team member you catch awake between midnight and 6:00 am.)
20. There’s only one way to get around the strip, but don’t get derailed. Catch a picture of any Converseon team member and you on Vegas’ mass transit system and get 15 points.
